The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, May 19. 1714.

London, May 19.

On Monday Night late arrived from Holland
the Mail of Friday last.

From the Hague Courant, dated May 15.

Stockholm, May 3.

Afew Days ago the Archbishop of Upsal, who strenuously opposed the late Proposition of the States of the Kingdom, to confer the Regency, during the King's Absence on the Princess Ulrica Eleonora, died at his Residential Seat at Upsal. The Assembly of the States of the Kingdom is not yet separated; though the Deputies meet but seldom, many of them being gone home about their private Affairs. In the mean while 'tis talked that all the absent Members will shortly be summoned hither, to deliberate further on the State of the Nation, and to pass a Resolution thereupon; which Resolution will depend very much on the News we expect touching the King's return from Turkey. We have nothing particular from Finland, more than that the Czar has caused a Manifesto to be published and dispersed in that Province, in which he seeks to persuade the Inhabitants, that the Continuance of the War is not owing to him, but wholly to the King of Sweden. 'Tis advised from Carelsroon, that Major-General Meyersfeld was arrived there, and that Admiral Watrang sailed from thence the 22d past, with his Squadron, towards the Coast of Finland, whither he was to be followed by some other Men of War and Frigates which were getting ready. Letters from Gortenbourg relate, that our Cruisers had taken and brought into that Port a Frigate bought for the Czar in England, and which with a very rich Lading and several English Officers (who have put themselves into the Russian Service) was bound for Petersbourg. Monday last being the 30th of April, the Birthday of the Young Duke of Holstein-Gottorp, who then entered into the 15th Year of his Age, was kept at Court: In the Evening there was a Ball, at which most of the Nobility appeared.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 26.

Madrid, May 7. The Princess Ursini is to set out shortly for France. The Barceloners receiving the News the 22d of April of the Conclusion of the Peace between the Emperour and the King of France, fired several Rounds of Artillery and small Arms, on the Quarters of the Spaniards with Ball, on those of the French with Powder. The Catalonian Colonel Dalman went out, by Leave first obtained, to the Head-Quarters of the French, to speak with the commanding Officer, and he told him among other things, that the Catalonians being Imperialists, were by the Peace become good Friends with the French, and that he was come out from the Deputation to learn what Advantages were stipulated by this Peace for themselves and the other Catalonians.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 25.

Grona, May 5. We have received a very ample Relation of what has passed most considerable in Catalonia till the 8th of last Month. The Substance of which is as follows.

The Catalonians have surprized several Garrisons of the Castilians, and have killed or taken above 3000 of them in several Encounters. The most considerable Actions were, at Arbucias, where they killed or made Prisoners 800 Soldiers and 72 Officers, Spaniards, taking 6 Colours and all their Equipages; and at Balsareni, where 700 Men with their Officers were killed, and 6 Colours more taken. The Marquis de Poal commanded on these Occasions. The Towns of Solsona and Vich have again espoused the Party of the Catalonians, who have likewise reduced the Castle of Verga, and put to the Sword the Garrison of the Seu-d'Urgel. The Places of the Conque de Tremp and of Ribagorza, supported by the Volunteers of Arragon, who make Incursions quite into Navarre, remain firm likewise in the Party of the Catalonians. The Duke de Popoli is very much infested in his Camp, all the neighbouring Mountains being possessed by the Catalonians; and he begins to want Provisions, because all the Passages are shut up. The 3d of April a Battery of the Barceloners, of 14 Cannon, dismounted one of 7 Mortars of the Besiegers. The 4th the Garrison of that Place made a Sally, under the Command of the Marquis de Villareal, nailed 18 Cannon of the Spaniards, and wounded about 500 of their Soldiers.

Milan, May 12. Letters from Barcelona of the 20th past relate in Substance, that the 9th the Garrison had made a very successful Sally; and were making Preparations for attempting a great Sally the 20th. P. S. Just now we have Advice from Barcelona, by the Way of Genoa, that the Barceloners made their Sally the 23d past, with all the Success they could have proposed, being seconded by the Marquis de Poal with a Body of Miquelets Volunteers and other Troops from the Country. We know not yet all the Particulars: We learn only, that they routed the Spanish Camp, with considerable Loss, a great Number of the Spaniards being killed on the Spot, besides a great Number of wounded and Prisoners; 'twas reported even, that the Duke de Popoli is among the latter.

From the Hague Courant, dated May 23.

Brussels, May 21. Private Letters from Paris of the 18th Instant relate, that they had a strong Report there, that the King of Spain, on the Intercession of the King of France, had given the Barceloners Satisfaction touching their Liberties and Privileges; and that therefore the Duke of Berwick's Journey to Catalonia was put off.

Hague, May 24. The Duke d'Osuna is shortly expected here from Utrecht, in order to go to the Court of France; his Excellency having already desir'd of this State the necessary Passports for transporting his Baggage. The Peace between Spain and Portugal is now on a good Foot, and will speedily be concluded; and that between Spain and this State will not be long after it.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated May 26.

Hague, May 24. The British Minister, Mr. Hatley, having been visited by several foreign Ministers since his Return hither from Hanover, will sail with the first fair Wind for England, in the same Yacht which has brought over from thence hither hither Sir Patrick Lawler, which Sir Patrick will, 'tis said, have the Care of Affairs here, in the Room of the Spanish Ambassador the Marquis de Montelcon, who is to go to reside at the Court of England.

Dunkirk, May 10. O. S. This Day the Intendant gave publick Notice, by affixing a Writing in the Market, and all Places of publick Resort, that whosoever of the Merchants or others should presume to employ any of the Troops belonging to the King, so as to hinder or divert them from working on the demolishing of the Citadel or filling up the Harbour, should forfeit 200 Livres, half to his most Christian Majesty and the other to the Informer. On the 14th early in the Morning, about 70 Paces of the Wall of the Citadel, and near the same Space from the East-Side of the Port, fell down, without any other Damage than killing one and bruising three of the Soldiers employed in undermining the Wall. They continue to work on the Sluice of the Basin, out of which they have got up the greatest part of the Stones, and the Sand out of both the Jetées, which they throw into that part of the Harbour to make the Dam; and 'tis believed by the British Ingeniers, that in a Week's time there will not be left more than eight Foot Water, so that all the Ships of Burthen belonging to England now lying at the Key-Port are removing. There are no French Ships or Vessels larger than Hoxes or Ketches that lie so near the Town.
